Sports are essential to develop the body and also to develop the character. Our coaches here at Saint John's are the best. They have unselfishly given themselves and their time to our boys. Their good example and friendship have made it an honor to be associated with them.

To you "Tom" Hardiman, "Bucky" Gore, "Ray" Gagne, "Marty" and "Tinker" Foy, our coaches, we dedicate

Class History

June 1959

Dear Aquila,

What were your thoughts last September while you were looking over Sister Bridget's shoulder as she cheerfully welcomed the newly-arrived Freshman Class? You probably laughed at the bashful young group, who were hard put to it to stay out of one another's way. You found, however, that although at first we knew very little of our classmates, we soon became well acquainted through our numerous activities.

The biggest event of the fall was the traditional Freshman Reception, which was put on by the Senior Class. In one of the many highlights of the evening, each of your young Freshmen was required to choose a Senior partner for a special spotlight dance.

On a beautiful night late in October, the Freshman "hayseeds" had a hayride and a little get-together at Lois O'Rourke's house. Everyone had a good time, but Lois seemed disappointed since no one wore his "Sunday-go-to-meetin' duds" except "Levi" Haller and "Plain Jane" Neveux.

Time flew by, and, as the Christmas season approached, Cupid, disguised as Sister Bridget, was hard at work, pairing off unsuspecting Freshmen for the Senior Prom. Weren't you proud as your Freshmen passed by in the Grand March?

By this time, we had become well acquainted with our new teachers. Each day started off bright and early in the Freshman Room as Sister Amatus held her Latin I Class. In your obtuse History Class, Sister Evangelista assured us that the building of the Great Pyramid had been a great spectacle. She remembered it well!

During the year, an association of undying memory was formed. Under the name of the "Born Too Late Club," the Freshman girls gave their hearts to the Senior boys. By the way, Marie, do you still look in Kinney's every time you go by? Hasn't anyone told you he's gone?

Speaking of associations, when's the next meeting of the "Freshman Communist Party," Dave?

Time flew by swiftly, and, before we knew it, final exams were approaching. In spite of our teachers' best efforts, we all passed, and planned to celebrate by having as our last activity of the year, the Class Picnic at Webster Lake. As luck would have it, however, the trip was rained out, but we have much to look forward to, for we shall return in September as Sophomores!

Hopefully yours,

The Class of '62

Class History

June 1960

Dear Aquila,

You probably laughed again as a boisterous group of youngsters, intent on taking over the school, proudly entered the Sophomore room last fall. Sister Austin soon showed us our rightful place, however, as many young Sophomores paid the price of unlawful extracurricular activities.

With Madelene Davis at the piano, your delightful French 1 Class really swung out every day. How about one more rocking chorus of "Coucou"?

In Biology Class, Sister Bridget had a weekly grab-bag. Just pick one out and dissect it. Frogs, anyone?

There was a lot of monkey business in the Geometry Class, with organ grinders running through the school, and J. Fred Muggs following people around.

Since some of your students in Latin II couldn't keep up with Caesar as he "hot-footed it" around Gaul, we were placed in either the "dead-and-buried row" or the "one-foot-in-the-grave row" by Sister Evangelista. Caesar's right hand men, by the way, were Titus Labienus Cassidyus and Davidius Cornelius Halleronius.

We lost some of our group this year, but we were happy to have John Jennato join our number. Sister Austin was happy, too, to have a full-blooded Cherokee Indian sitting right in front of her. Sister Austin generously helped us to keep our dues up. Don't you think she was pleased to know that "Pancho" Haller, "Cisco" Sawyer, and "Sam" Donovan were completely paid up?

On Tuesdays and weekends during the basketball season, six of the finest J.V. Cheerleaders you ever saw helped the team on to a fine record.

To end this great year, Dick Gagne played host at a wonderful class picnic at his camp on Webster Lake. It was a beautiful day and everyone stayed in the water for hours. Are you still guiding tourists through that haunted house, Dick?

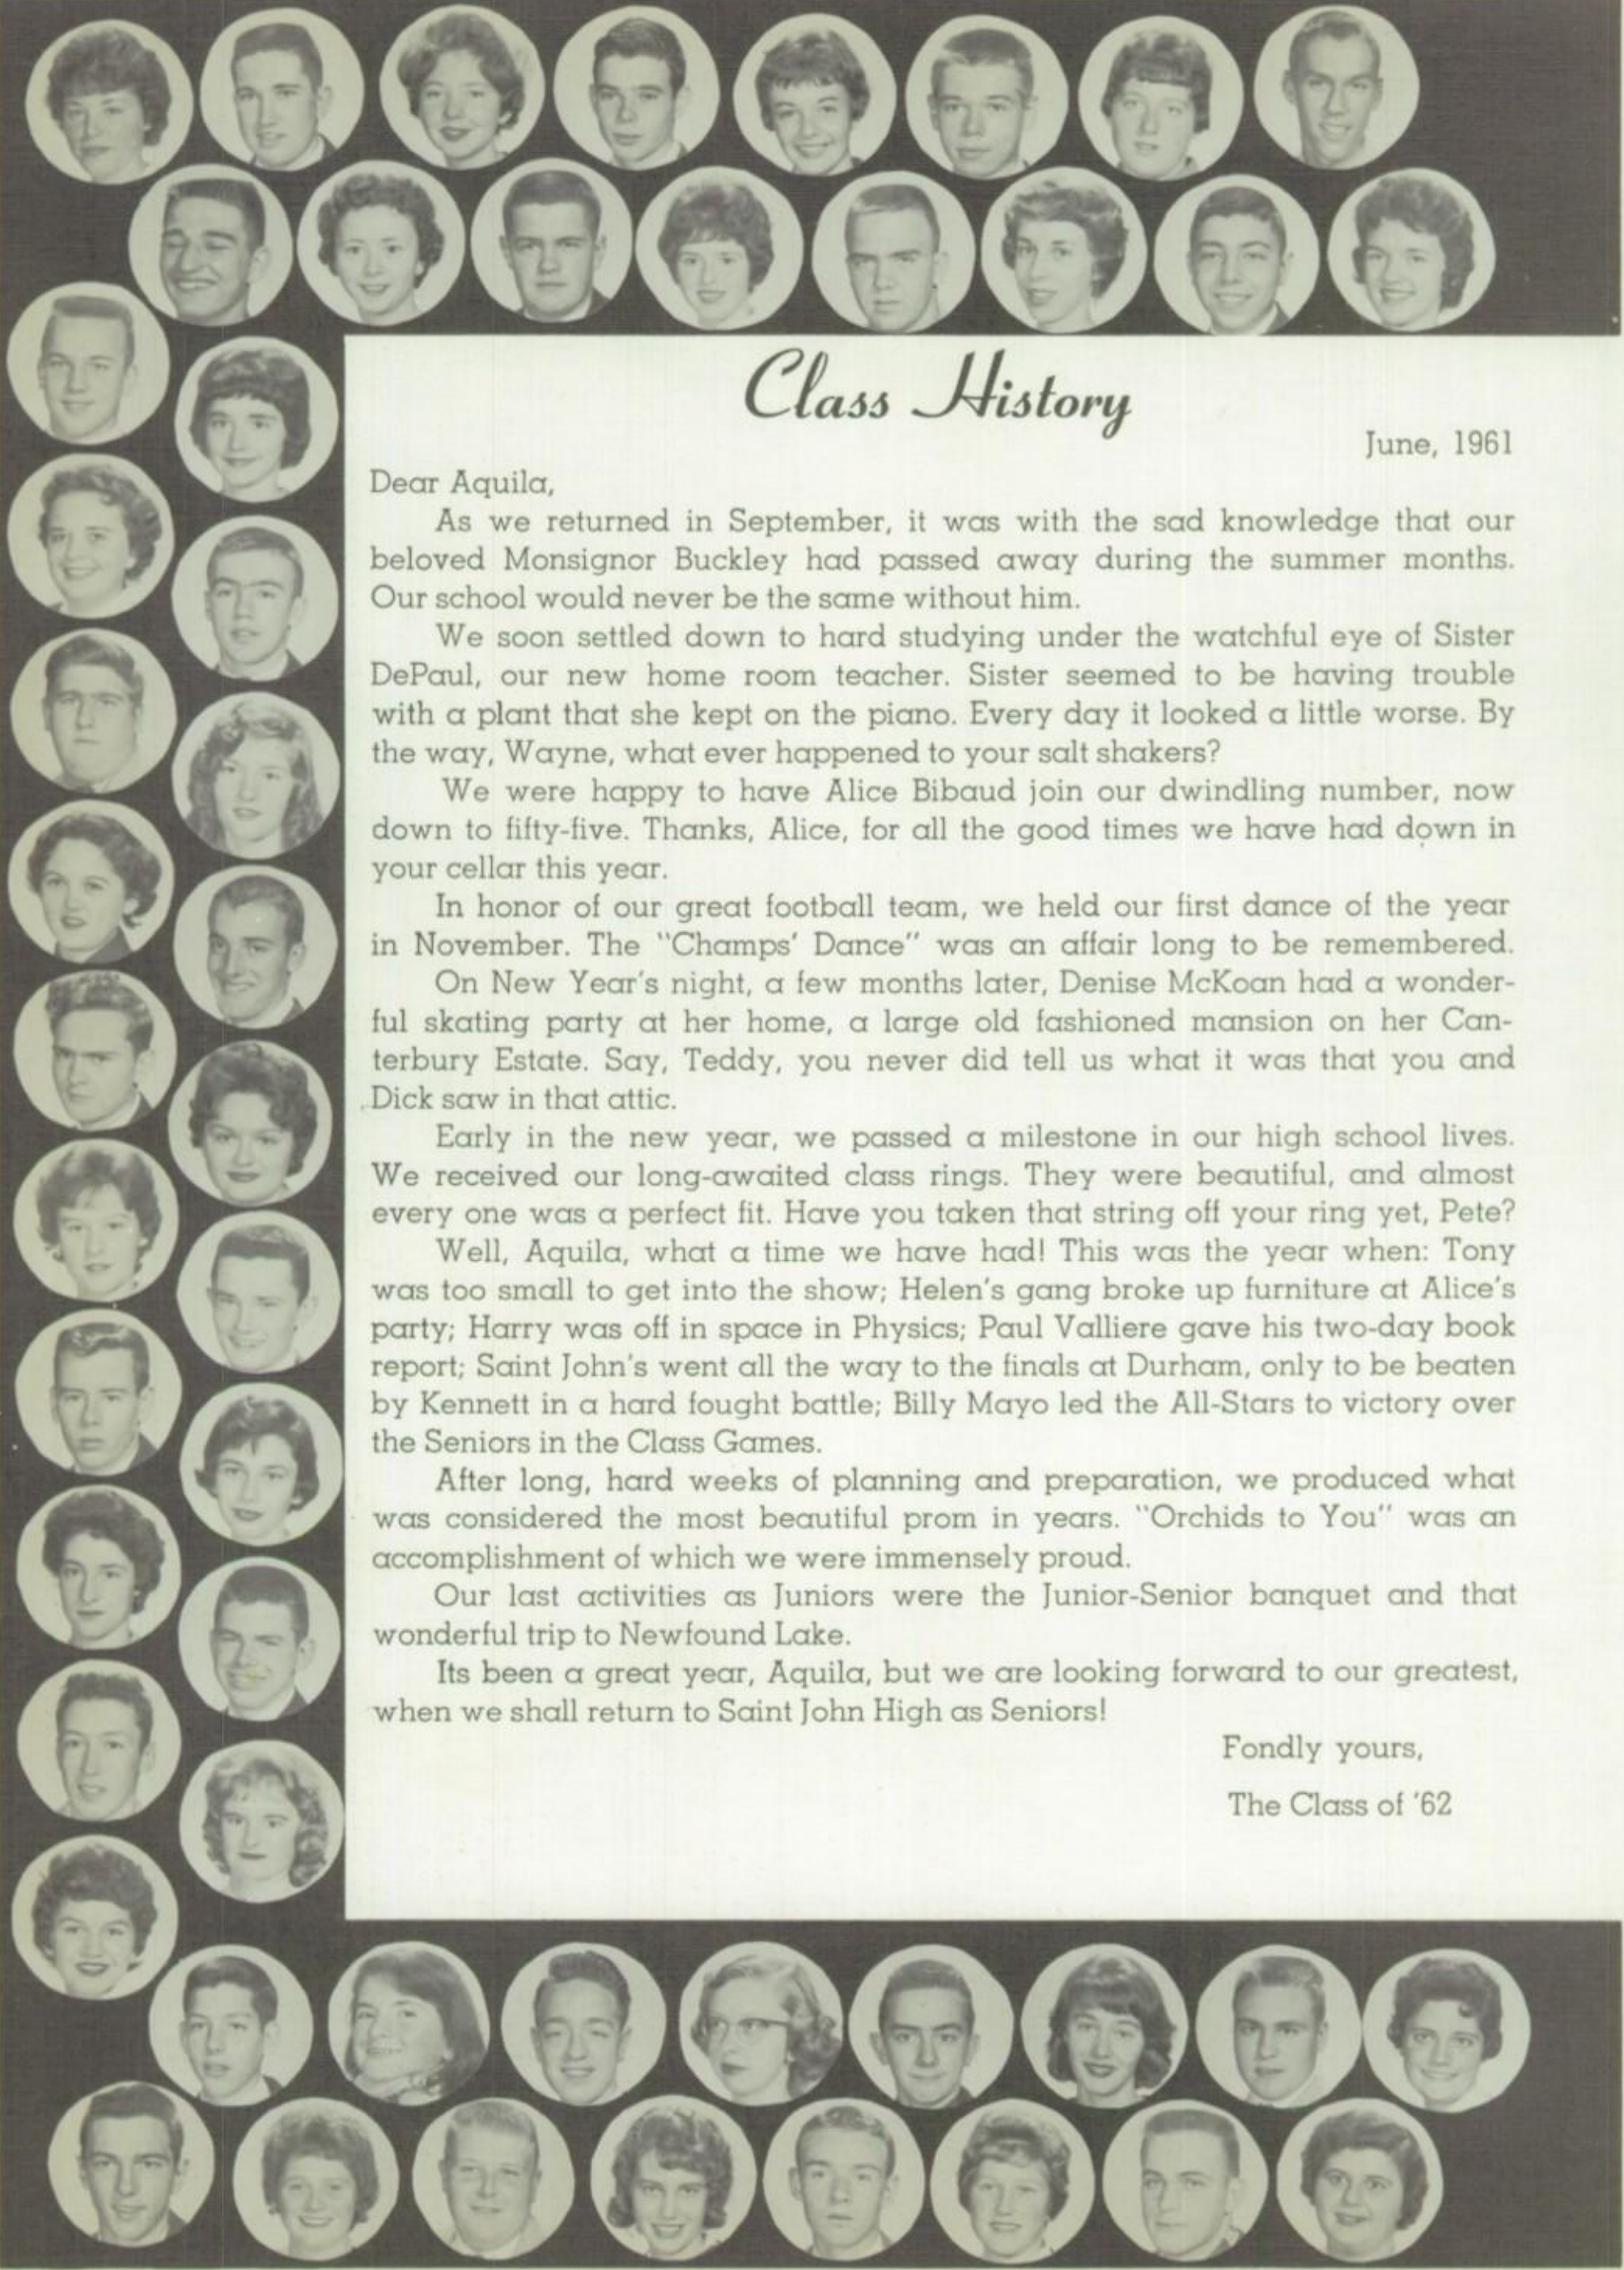

Well, Aquila, when we return in September, we shall be upperclassmen. We shall be Juniors!

Humbly yours,

The Class of '62

Class History

June, 1961

Dear Aquila,

As we returned in September, it was with the sad knowledge that our beloved Monsignor Buckley had passed away during the summer months. Our school would never be the same without him.

We soon settled down to hard studying under the watchful eye of Sister DePaul, our new home room teacher. Sister seemed to be having trouble with a plant that she kept on the piano. Every day it looked a little worse. By the way, Wayne, what ever happened to your salt shakers?

We were happy to have Alice Bibaud join our dwindling number, now down to fifty-five. Thanks, Alice, for all the good times we have had down in your cellar this year.

In honor of our great football team, we held our first dance of the year in November. The "Champs' Dance" was an affair long to be remembered.

On New Year's night, a few months later, Denise McKoan had a wonderful skating party at her home, a large old fashioned mansion on her Canterbury Estate. Say, Teddy, you never did tell us what it was that you and Dick saw in that attic.

Early in the new year, we passed a milestone in our high school lives. We received our long-awaited class rings. They were beautiful, and almost every one was a perfect fit. Have you taken that string off your ring yet, Pete?

Well, Aquila, what a time we have had! This was the year when: Tony was too small to get into the show; Helen's gang broke up furniture at Alice's party; Harry was off in space in Physics; Paul Valliere gave his two-day book report; Saint John's went all the way to the finals at Durham, only to be beaten by Kennett in a hard fought battle; Billy Mayo led the All-Stars to victory over the Seniors in the Class Games.

After long, hard weeks of planning and preparation, we produced what was considered the most beautiful prom in years. "Orchids to You" was an accomplishment of which we were immensely proud.

Our last activities as Juniors were the Junior-Senior banquet and that wonderful trip to Newfound Lake.

Its been a great year, Aquila, but we are looking forward to our greatest, when we shall return to Saint John High as Seniors!

Fondly yours,

The Class of '62

Class History

June, 1962

Dear Aquila,

As we, your Senior Class, are now facing graduation, let us turn the pages back again to recall the happenings of our final year of high school.

Instead of "joining the mob and voting for Bob," we "got the best with P.L.S.," as Pete Sillari was elected head of the Student Body.

As your football team, led by Co-Captains Boucher, Gagne, and Sawyer, journeyed to Manchester to battle the Bishop Bradley Pioneers, we were pleased to see the Bradley cheerleaders, led by "Wick" Clinton, welcome us "with a 'B.'"

As we returned to practice later that week, it was raining, and we all headed for the trees. The rain soon stopped, however, and a beautiful band of color stretched across the sky. Who said that the end of the rainbow was in Edgar's wine cellar?

Not long afterwards, the Freshman Home Room was honored by the presence of a delegation of Seniors, led by Pete Sillari. Reading from a scroll the length of the room, Peter announced the duties and obligations of all Freshmen for Initiation Day. By midnight of that famous day, you had the humblest Freshman Class in your history.

Just before the Thanksgiving weekend, there was an assembly, during which four Seniors were installed in the National Honor Society. Scholarship, one of the four requirements for membership, was the subject of a short oration by Robert Sawyer. Bob, what were those inspired words of Job?

As the Christmas Season approached, preparations were once again under way for a prom, our Senior Prom. Everyone agreed that "An Olde Fashioned Christmas" was a credit to our class. Hey fellas, let's have one more round of "Shanty Town!"

During the February vacation, we all shouted ourselves hoarse as Co-Captains Edgar Amrol and Tom Cassidy led the basketball team to our first State championship in eight years. Heartiest congratulations to them and to our great coach, Tom Hardiman!

Well, Aquila, these are some of our fond memories of Saint John High. Before we leave, we want to express our sincere thanks to you, and to all who have made them possible: Monsignor Gardner, Father Donnelly, and Father O'Connor; Sister Arthur, and all our teachers. We will do our best to live up to your expectations by becoming good citizens and Christian soldiers of Jesus Christ.

Theresa Brodeur

Always thinking of you,

Class Will

We, one of the last classes (maybe the very last class!) to leave Saint John High, do in this year of 1962, officially sign and seal this, our last will and testament in favor of all our lucky successors. May they attempt to be as virtuous and as happy as the illustrious class of '62 has been!

Marie Addario leaves her contagious laugh to Claire Shurtleff. It is up to you now, Claire. Gerard Auger leaves his title, "The Suncook Flash," to Luc Daviault. To Mary Beth McGahan, Alice Bibaud leaves her shorthand technique. Sister Gemma will love you, Mary Beth. Ronald Blais gladly leaves fifty pounds to Mary Barrett. You need it, Mary??? Wayne Blais leaves his sixth period naps to Frances Massey. To James Letendre, James Boyle bequeaths his slightly used pack of Winstons. Don't smoke too many! You might turn green! Lorette Brasley leaves her dust cloth to her darling sister, Jeanne. Be sure to dust behind the piano! To Mary Healy, Theresa Brodeur leaves her famous chemistry equations. See if you can figure them out! To Elaine Currier, Margaret Callahan leaves the privilege of starting a new "sewing circle." Bring plenty of ammunition. William Isabelle bequeaths his bright red, curly hair to Shirley Pope. Thomas Cassidy leaves his God-given talent for rebounding to Dennis Pope. As if he needed it! Robert Colle leaves his bowling equipment, low scores and all, to Ernest Bonenfant. Cheer up, some day you might hit 300, too! To Jerolyn Arsenault, Theresa Despres leaves her cute little dimples. Don't forget to put the blush with them, Jerolyn. Richard Donovan leaves his paint brush in the Alcoholic Ward to Martin King. Watch out for those fumes, they are murder. Mary Jane Ferns leaves her famous quotation, "Love and marriage is for the birds," to Gail Dymont. O.K., maybe it isn't so famous. To Roberta Keane, Ruth Field leaves her favorite position in front of the mirror. Lorraine Fleming leaves her seat in the Senior room to her sister, Lorette. Good news! It's right near Sister Cyrilla. To Andrew Tetreault, Richard Gagne leaves his world-famous dancing ability, especially to do the Twist. Edmund Gifford leaves his fond memories of those trips to the Weirs to Ernest Wilcox. David Haller leaves his extended lunch period, cokes and all, to James Moran. We hope it is in good hands. To Joan Brown, John Healy leaves his position as president of the Sodality. This we know will be in good hands. To John Palmer, John Jennato leaves his unique ability to do the Mashed Potatoes and other crazy dance numbers. Linda Kelley leaves her pep and energy to Lucille Cote. You will need it as a cheerleader for S.J.H. Karen Lutze leaves her skill in speaking French to George Keefe. You need it, Georgie! To Lynn Roy, Frances McAllister leaves her favorite booth in St. Claire's. Now you'll always have a seat. To Barbara Economides, Eleanor McDonald leaves her inability to sing Greek songs. Anthony Neveux leaves his six foot height to Bernadette Alosa. Mary Parkinson leaves her sophisticated nature to Mary Ellen Avery. We wonder if you can join the "sewing circle," Mary Ellen. To Richard Boisvert, Maurice Raymond leaves his singing ability. With all this help, St. John's will have a wonderful Glee Club??? To Richard Carroll, Mary Patricia Ryan leaves her title of being PERFECT. It's nice to be the best in everything. Robert "Butch" Sawyer leaves his Trig books to Paul Peloquin. You might be as good as Sister Amatus some day if you study. Peter Sillari leaves his ability to get everything organized to John Forrestall. To Maurice St. Germaine, Maureen Tucke and Harry Rogers leave their public speaking talents. To Theresa Soucy, Paul Valliere leaves peace and quiet after his perpetual pestering of her. No more fights! Helen Whelan leaves to her sister Patrice the privilege of being girl class riot. To Donald Valliere, Harry "Chick" Rogers leaves his bold, back-seat, boisterousness. To Sherry Rabidou, Edgar Amrol leaves his favorite record, "You Don't Know What You've Got Until You Lose It." Maurice "Chicken" Boucher leaves his tremendous weight-lifting ability to Richard Mayo. You are all set now, Dick! Louise Dupont leaves her nursing ability to Carol Desmarais. The little black bag with the "hypodeemic" noodles goes also. To Paul Baerman, Sandra Jordan leaves the wonderful feeling of togetherness. To Charleen Norton, Carol Dandurand leaves her leopard spots and dots. Madelene Davis leaves the West Concord boys, and all the others to Mary Hill. Pauline Vezina leaves her great love of Economics to Daniel McGrath. Who needs it! Denise Mc-Koan leaves the straight and narrow path to Canterbury to Donald Pope. Don't get stuck like a few other Seniors we know. To John King, Judy Schinella and Marie La Pierre leave their jet-black hair with gray strands and a word of advice. "What, me worry?" Diane Labrie leaves her photographs taken by a certain male Sophomore to John Klun. Quite a collection! To Brenda Griffith, Roger Laflamme leaves his managerial position at Sterling Cut-Rate. To Beverly Tate, Bruce McAlpine leaves his rock and apple collection. Cherish it dearly, Bev. Joan LaPlante leaves her daily feuds to Judith Garofalo. Keep it quiet! Wilfred Mayo wills his position as the most over-worked employee and "chimney sweep" at the CONCORD MONITOR to Patricia Regan and Giselle Perreault. Rocco Luigi Domenic Pasquali Pelillo, Jr. leaves by the nearest exit. Anyone wanna "DRAG"???

We, the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-two, with the help of our councilors, the great Blais-Vezina Firm and "The Rock," hereby certify that we are mentally incompetent and physically unfit for anything, and thus do sign and seal this document as our last will and testament.

Mighty Manfred's Dream

CLASS PROPHECY

As the sun rises over the rooftops in the not yet awakened metropolis of Concord, preparations are already under way for the massive reunion of the Class of 1962 to be held in Bishop Brady High School Gymnasium this afternoon, September 14, 1977.

The city of Concord is anxiously awaiting the return of some of its most influential citizens of fifteen years ago. The earliest of the decorators is Dick Gagne, the school's head basketball coach, who lost all of his thirteen games last season, and loves to prepare for such occasions. Some more of the fun-lovers include Margaret Callahan, noted nonconformist hair "ratter," and her immediate staff, consisting of Francis McAllister and Pauline Vezina, who design and execute Maggie's wild, sweeping hair-do's.

Does that white limousine flying down the sidewalk belong to the thirty-eighth President of the United States, Tom Cassidy, and is that his official chauffeur, John Jennato? No, it can't be — my goodness, it is!

Racing down the hall to open the door for "Case" come the Blais boys of Pennycooke — Wayne being the manager of the Cheese-Cutting Department in the A & P, and Ronnie, who has made his success with the one million best seller, "How to Lose Fifty Pounds a Week."

Paul Valliere, current poet-laureate of America, arrives practicing his poem, "I Seen a Dish," which he will recite during the forthcoming presentation. Diane LaBrie will do her most outstanding scene from her current motion-picture, "Naughty Night in Naples." And guess what — the circus is in town! Two of Barnum and Bailey's most famous performances are here from their recent appearances. Welter-weight Whalen, barbell lifter, accompanied by Rag-time Ruth Fields, best known for her interpretation of "Swan Lake" in spotted leotards, will give their rendition of "Yes, We Have No Bananas Today." This will be presented under the sponsorship of "Tarantula Tony" and his banana plantation in Nigeria.

What's this clucking we hear? It seems Bouch is collecting bets for his championship cock-fights — better known as "Boucher's Black Bantam Bouts." Closing the afternoon's entertainment will be a Punching Bag Exhibition from "Bruce the Bruiser," boxing champion of the Heights.

Motoring along the thoroughfare comes Mary Parkinson, the thirty-sixth wife of King Alfred of Saudi, Arabia. How's the rest of the harem, Park? Behind them follows Mary Jane Ferns, riding an oil truck, reading her Pulitzer Prize Winner — "How to Win Friends and Keep Them."

Mandy Davis, head of the Aborigine Race, hops her way in on her tribal kangaroo, firing her boomerang at Billy Mayo, who is racing her to the door on one of his thoroughbred nags. Was it anything like the Kennett trip, Mandy? Meanwhile back in the kitchen, Marie Addario is preparing some of her instant frozen pizza from her world-famous pizzerias which she will serve the unfortunates for a joke.

"Sil" is supplying table decorations from his famous greenhouses — "Peter's Petite Potted Petunia Plants." Marie LaPierre, world's champion go-cart racer, is found parking — people's cars. Oh! she's hit something. That's all right Marie, it was only the toe of the Mayor of Suncook, Roger LaFlamme.

Theresa Brodeur and Louise Dupont, responsible for the founding of the Pennasun Animal Hospital, rush to help Roger in his plight. Look out for that car, girls! Judy forgot — Roooooom — her glasses!

Gerard "Norman Auger, fifth U.S. Astronaut caught swinging from the treetops of the steaming jungles of Ghana, and Mott Raymond his missile-launcher, appear from the great and glorious "nitrogenorous," heavens.

After inheriting Hobbs Hill from his father and turning it into a Revival Camp for Lost Souls (Heal them!) David Haller appears followed by a crowd of thousands. His many followers include Edgar Amrol — Portugal's "Mr. Basketball," and Rocco Pediddle, pride of the Superior Market.

One of the more successful graduates Bob Sawyer, alias "Duke of Earl," is now landowner of the estate once owned by Henry VIII. We received word that Linda Kelley will not be able to attend our reunion due to an acute case of the mumps.

Alice Bibaud has become Woolworth's Cosmetics Counsellor and arrives with Sandra Jordan, the first woman in Casey's cabinet.

Cycling into view on her well-used unicycle, is Pat Ryan, frustrated president of Ryan's Wretched Rejects. We are enormously proud of our arrivals so far. Wait! here comes Elly MacDonald carrying her World's fifth most famous painting, "Quinn's Capers." In the rear she is followed by the illustrious Miss Taureen Mucke, partner in Tic-Tac-Tuc Enterprises, legal consultant for marital problems, stationed in Reno, Nevada. Now entering is — John Healy, present assistant superintendent for the department of parochial kindergarten children. We also see Robert Colle, president of the Metra-"Colle" Ass'n. inching his way through the door. Behind Bob is Teddy Gifford, who for the past fifteen years has been carrying on the family's trade tradition now called, "Fourteen Sons."

The gym has almost reached its full capacity as Gifford lets his kids loose. In the confusion is seen Lorraine Fleming covering the story for the Concord Monitor and the Suncook Sun. Fleeting down the corridor is found Karin Lutze, and a group of young native boys that came with her from her Peace Corps Headquarters in Bolivia.

Billy Isabelle, now police chief of Concord, arrives on his motorcycle with a side car containing a well known raven-haired creature. Who is she, Bill?

Joan LaPlante having gained renown for her counterpart to "Dear Abbey" more popularly known as "Dear Joni," enters, pressed by autograph hounds. In charge of the River Road Development Area for Slums is "Victor Cheap." Whoops — that is, Harry Rogers! He is now entering through the front door in his formal attire — his construction jeans.

Some of the late arrivals through poor navigation are: Carol Dandurand and Lorette Brasley, co-owners of the Suncook Steamship Line and their passenger Therese Despres, the Olympic champion of discus throwing.

Now the "shew" is on the road with James Boyle, Concord's leading Emcee and founder, editor and publisher of the Boyle Blast. He is going to introduce Richard Donovan who has taken the place of Jack Paar on the Late Show which will feature Denise McKoan, doing her rendition of "Chubby Checker"; without a pattern, Pinky?

Now the show begins, take your seats folks, and hang on!

Richard Donovan
Denise McKoan

THE KING IS DEAD! LONG LIVE THE KING!

Too soon must we part,
Too soon must we go,
Our four years are over
They've melted like snow.
The time went so quickly
It passed and is gone —
But with the new day
There comes a new dawn,
And our dawn is here now,
Ah! here comes the sun!
Diplomas! A new life!
A new world's begun!

Denise McKoan

A WINTER SCENE

High above the tree tops
My window frames a scene,
A lovely winter mural
Of sunset clouds serene.
Looking at this masterpiece
Through my open door,
I make the sudden prayerful plea,
Lord! please show me more!

John E. Healey

THE TEAM

The team runs out onto the floor,
The fans stand up to cheer,
They see the ball go through the hoop,
It dispels every fear.
The boys shoot from 'way "down town,"
No team can stop them now,
Their defense is as tight as drums,
Tom Hardiman showed them how.
It's coaching, spirit, fight, that counts,
Of these they have all three,
Because they have, what think you now?
Who should the Champions be?

Peter Sillari

WHO CAN DO IT?

The snowflakes drop on top of trees
From early morn till night,
And everything at last is changed
From brown to pearly white.
The trees that once looked bleak and bare
Are bowing low to all,
Their limbs are heavy with the snow
That always gently falls.
The time goes by, the months roll on,
The snow is vanishing,
Our friends, the birds, come back to us,
The air is full of spring.
And soon we see a new-born world,
It comes alive again!
The flowers bloom, the trees grow green,
And joy comes back to men.
Oh, tell me, who can do all this?
Who brings to life the dead?
Is it the One who cleans my soul
And gives me daily bread?

Judy Schinella

Verse — Better or Worse

BIRD-BRAIN DESIRE

I wish I were a bird on high,
I'd fly around the great big sky.
From morn to night I'd always be
Content, and I'd feel heavenly.
One day I'd fly down by the sea,
Without a care, just feeling free,
And when I'd feel my gizzard squirm
I'd go and find a juicy worm.
No troubles, worries, coming fast,
My mind would be at peace at last.

David Haller

THE CHEERLEADERS

Who cheer the team to victory?
Who love to claim that task?
Who yell and clap with all their might?
The Cheerleaders! Why ask?
And when the team is far behind
And when the boys are blue,
Who makes them feel so wonderful?
The Cheerleaders! That's who.

Judy Schinella

ALWAYS (To our Priests)

We, the Class of Sixty-two,
Thank you,
You, the priests, who've helped us
We know,
That in our prayers, for God to see,
You'll be Always.

Anthony Neveux

OUR SAVIOR

One Christmas eve long years ago
The world in stillness lay,
And in a stable, cold and dark,
A Child slept on the hay.
The Angels sang a song of praise
Upon that blessed night.
The shepherds and the Wise Men came
To see the wondrous sight.

That night the Son of God was born
Within the manger stall.
For thirty years He lived and loved
As model for us all.

The miracles which he performed
Have lived throughout the years.
The hope and love He gave to all
Have conquered many fears.

In spite of all the wondrous things
He did for you and me
We crowned Him with a wreath of thorn
And nailed Him to a tree!

Theresa Brodeur

MY DESK

Within my desk are books both old and new,
Red and Blue.
Other things inside are pens and pencils,
And my stencils,
Notebooks, papers, rulers, ink, and clips,
Potato chips,
Erasers, candy, kleenex, pictures, boys' rings,
And other things.
I wonder why the Sisters all complain, —
And try again!

Carol Dandurand

A TRINITY OF GREATS

The man who starts us on a trend,
His name of course is John Glenn.
Our Nation's youthful energy,
His name is John F. Kennedy.

AND

The man who keeps sports going so strongly
Is our director, Father Donnelly.

Swingsville S. J. H.

The party was just getting into full swing when we heard Roger at the door saying, "I'm Gonna Knock On Your Door." All of a sudden Edgar ran by wearing his "Tan Shoes And Pink Shoe Laces." We all kept dancing when we heard Peter at the door yelling "Let Me In, Let Me In." In a distance we could hear the roar of Gerard's motorcycle. A few minutes later Gerard walked in with his date, Judy, wearing his "Black Leather Jacket With The Eagle On The Back." Denise kept begging Rocco to "Twist" but he said with a tired frown, "There's No Fool Like An Old Fool." In the doorway Tommy was saying to Margaret, "Kookie Kookie Lend Me Your Comb." Margaret replied in a harsh voice, "You Ain't Nothing But A Hound Dog." As far as Billy and Karen were concerned the house could fall in, because they were busy speaking the "Language Of Love."

Dicky and Linda were having a spat because she called him a "Butterfly." He asked her what she meant and she said, "Lipstick On Your Collar Told A Tale On You." There was a moment of silence as Diane pleaded with David saying "Don't Ever Leave Me," but she smiled again when he said, "You Are My Destiny."

Among the guests of the evening were the Hairdresser Trio featuring Pauline, Marie A., and Frances, who sang "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes." They can be seen regularly at the Saint Clair Tea Room. The Suncook Trio, Louise, Theresa, and Lorraine, were there singing "Au Claire De Lune." They appear often at "Vets." Maurice Boucher was leading a chorus of "Picking On The Wrong Chicken" aided by Ronnie and Jimmy. As the guests started to leave, Patricia and Theresa began to scream, "Don't Go Please Stay." But Maurice Raymond saved the party by leading the Twist.

All at once there was a pounding at the door. It was "Big Bad John" Healy who pointed to Sandra and said, "Come To Me My Melancholy Baby." The room became silent as Sandra replied in a low voice "It's All Over." Harry and Joan had brought along their new record, "See The U.S.A. In Your Chevrolet." In the midst of the crowd we could hear Ruth say to someone, "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out Of My Hair." Tony gave Helen a thrill when he said to her, "When The Moon Hits Your Eye Like A Big Pizza Pie." All Maureen said all night was, "Hats Off To Larry." We wonder why. When Mary came in with her New Jersey date, all she said was "Please Don't Talk To The Lifeguard." Carol sang the "G. I. Blues" and Alice joined her by singing "Flying Blue Angels." Teddy was unhappy because he wanted to "Love His Life Away." All that Teddy kept saying was, "If I Had A Girl." Marie L. began to sing "Home Home On The Range," but someone interrupted by asking, "How do you dance to that one?" Everyone gathered around to hear Bruce's story, "I'm Just A Lonely Boy." Mandy offered to keep him company, and he replied, "I'm All Shook Up." In one of the corners someone was telling Janie that he thought Wayne was shy, but she answered, "You'd Be Surprised." Elly was muttering all night with her vocabulary limited to the word "Jimmy." Everyone was happy to see the late arrival of "Billy," "Bashful Bob," and "Tall Paul." They all wasted no time in finding where the icebox was. Dicky Donovan was unhappy and left asking for his pal "Norman."

When Lorette and John J. were dancing, Lorette accidentally stepped on his foot, and he yelled "Don't Step On My Blue Suede Shoes." She looked at him and said, "Ain't That A Shame." The party came to an end by Robert Colle's singing "It's All Over", followed by "Till We Meet Again."

Football

This year we began with the biggest turnout we have had since "Bucky" has been coaching at St. John's, and courage ran high.

We were for the most part inexperienced on the left side of the line and there were a few gaps to be filled in the backfield. However, all were raring to go.

Our first game as usual was with Bishop Bradley High, the biggest boy-school in New Hampshire. Even though we didn't win, our morale was quickly restored by our coaches.

Our travels next took us to the beautiful country of the North. Here we met the Kennett High "Eagles." After a hard fought battle the score came out a tie, 14-14.

The following Saturday we came back to our own home field to play host to the boys from Exeter. Even though they had their All-State man this year, we were able to beat them by a rather large margin, 30-14.

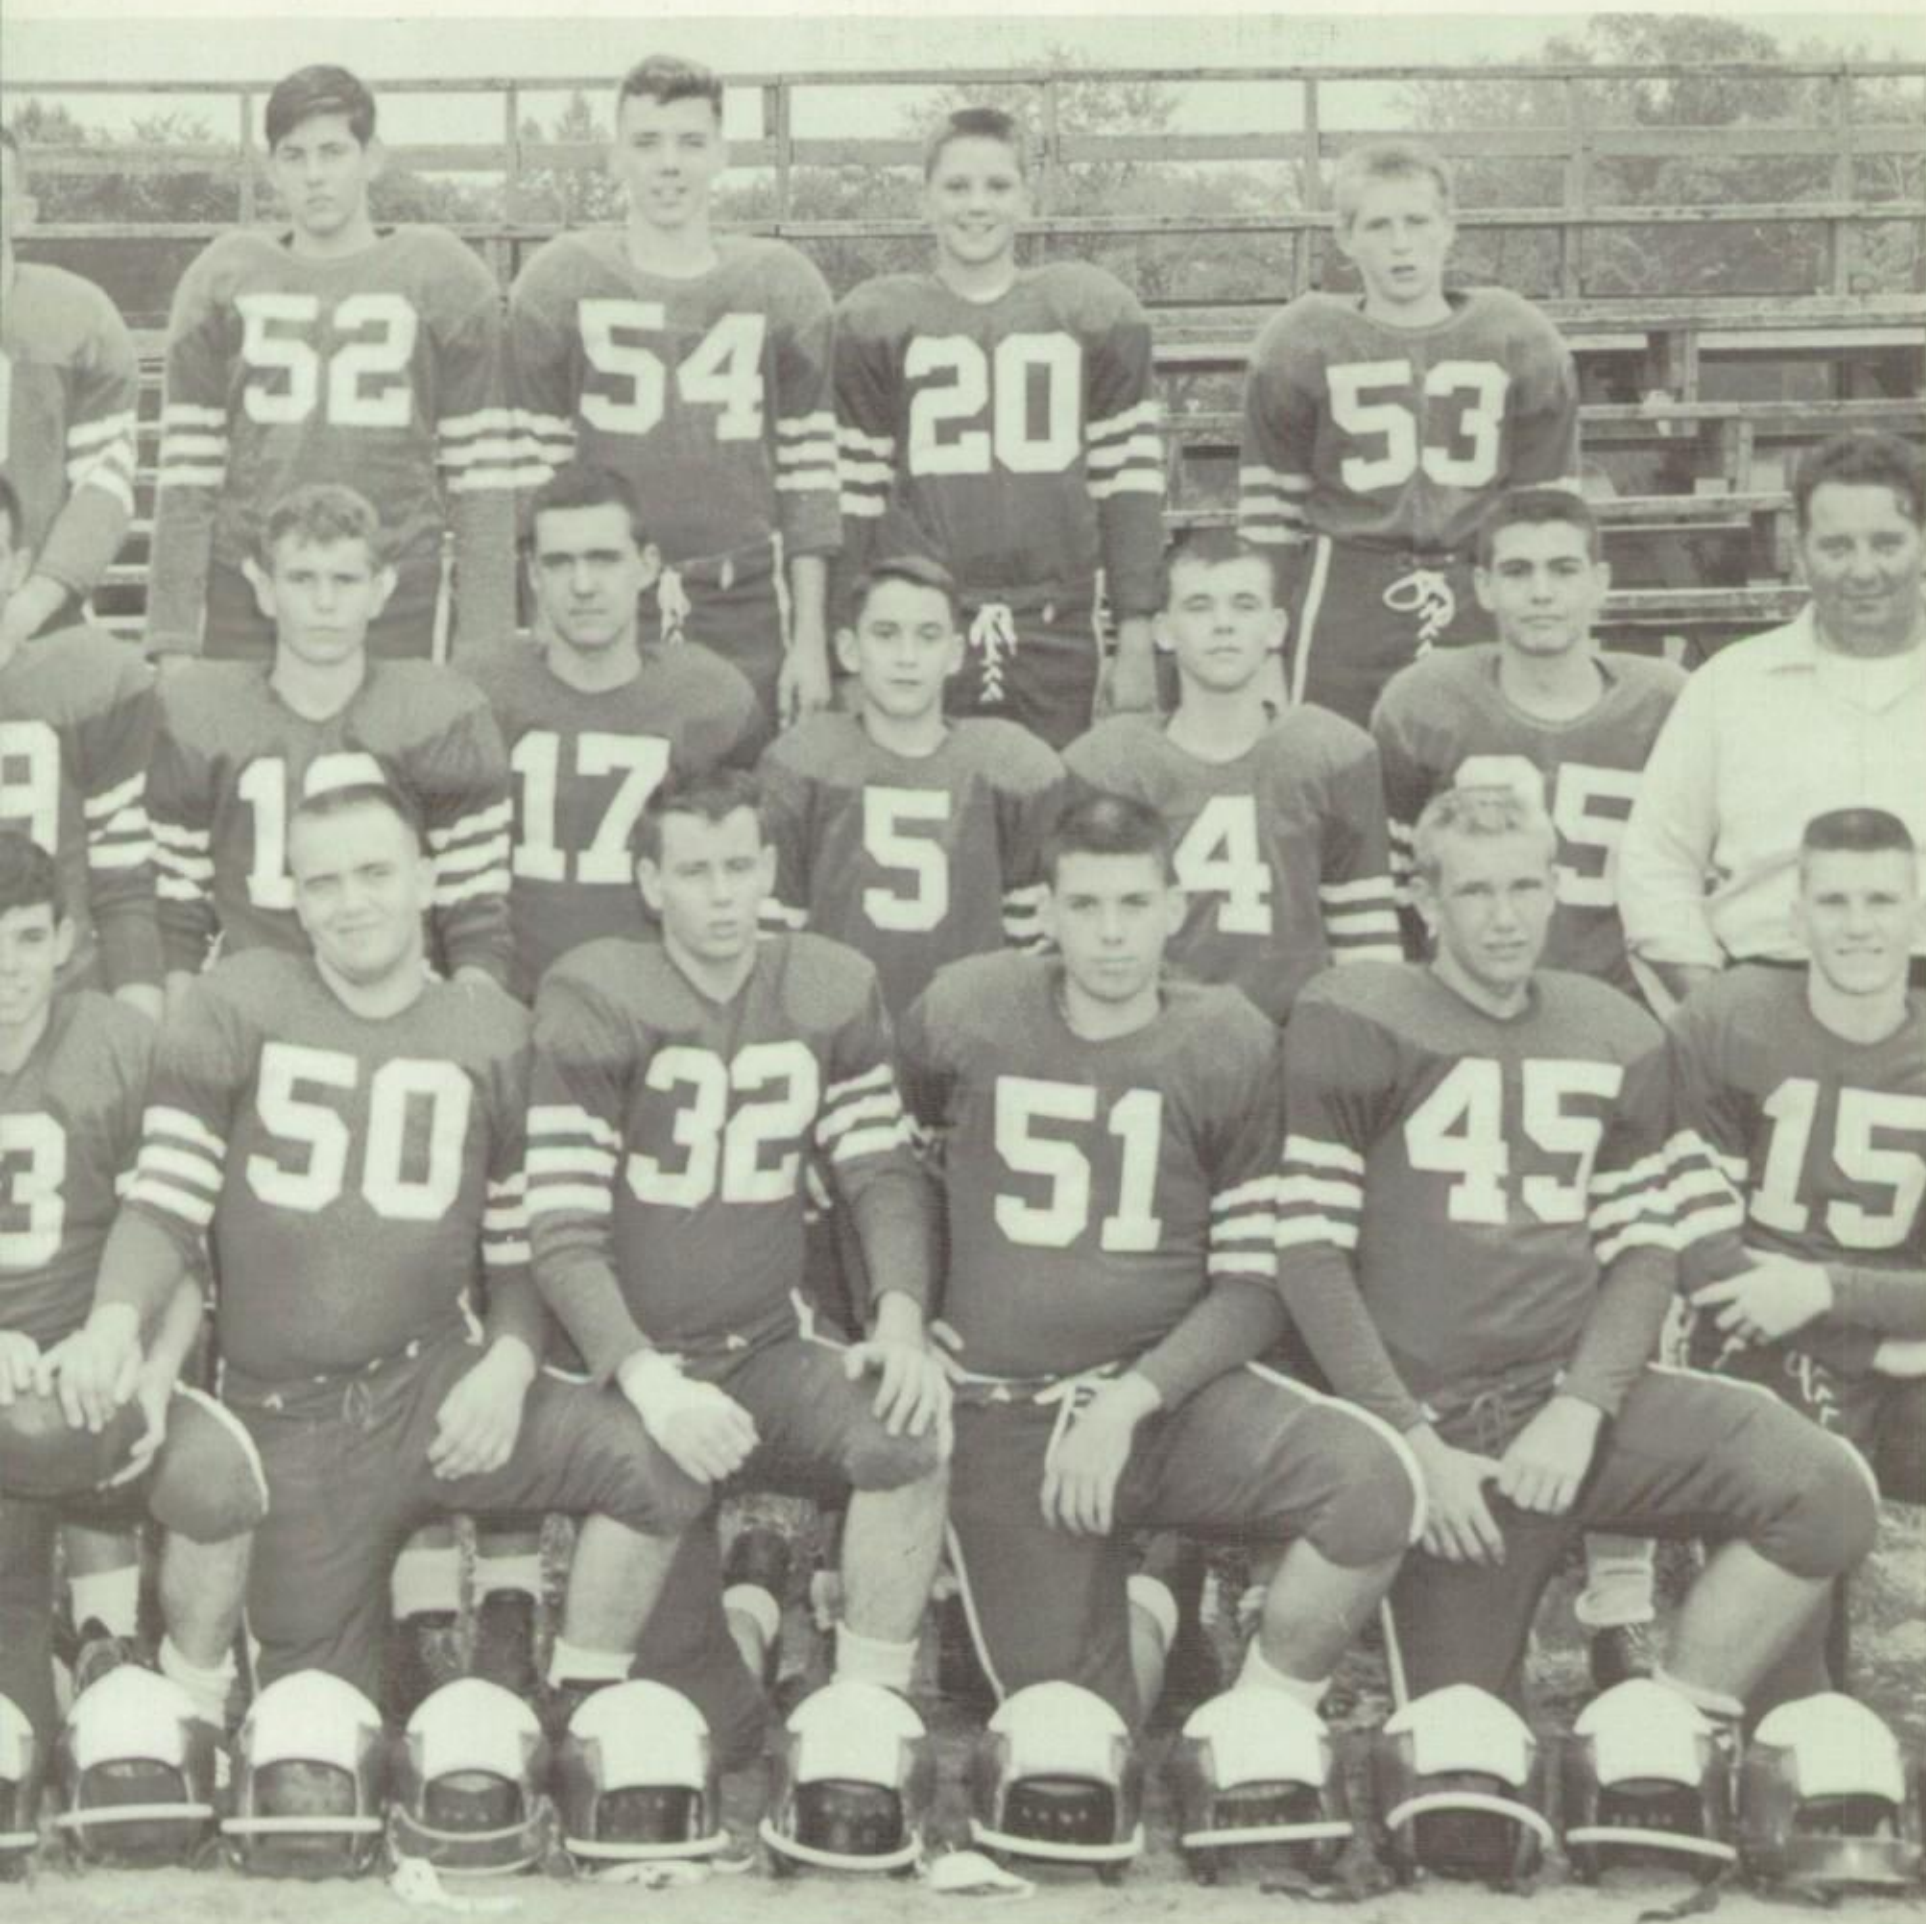

After the win over Exeter we were off again down to the Bradley Field but now we were going to play the "Blue Knights" of Manchester West, who were determined to beat the "Irish" this year. It was a tough game for us, for of the first three touchdowns we made, two were called back because of penalties. But when the final gun sounded the "Irish" came out with their second win.

Then came the only night game of our season. We were going to meet the rugged "Red-Raiders" from Lebanon. Even though outweighed a little, we came through with a thrilling win: 14-0.

Half way in our campaign we met with some sickness among the players, just as we were approaching the decisive battle with the "Hilltoppers" from Somersworth. During the week before that game there were only twelve players at practice. We played the game as though we had only twelve players at practice, and the "Hilltoppers" came off their hills to beat us.

We recovered from our loss to the powerful Somersworth team, and our next contest was with Pinkerton at Pinkerton. After a slight mistake of not going over the goal line, we were off and rolling. And when the final whistle blew the "Irish" had won their fourth victory out of six games. The score was 32-22.

The next two games were on our home field. They were the last football games some of us were going to play. The first was with Claremont, although they were in class L last year. We played one of our best games of the season, coming out with a decisive victory of 38-12.

Then came the game most of us were looking for. We were to meet the "Golden Tornadoes" from Franklin, at Memorial Field. This game was the last of our campaign, and we had heard rumors that the "Tornadoes" were going to beat the "Irish." After a slight skirmish on the field we started to play football and the "Irish" came out with the sixth win of the season.

We are especially grateful to our coaches, Bucky, Ray, and the new-comer, our St. John graduate, Al Laramie, for what they did for us both on and off the field. And for a really great season, which we were not supposed to have.

We were honored this year to have two All-State boys on the team, Den and Don Pope. Both were outstanding all through the season.

Basketball

Beginning his eighth season as basketball mentor at St. John High, Tommy Hardiman was confronted with a small, inexperienced corps of boys at the first practice. Football had taken its toll and two of last year's veterans were forced to the sidelines. This added to the problems. The coach and team, however, were determined to improve on last year's season which saw the "Fighting Irish" become Class M runner-up to the Kennett High "Eagles."

The "Irish" started out fast with five consecutive victories over "M" opponents before falling in a nip and tuck battle with Bishop Bradley's Class L "Pioneers." After this unnecessary loss the spirited Green and White chalked up six more victories before making the long trek to meet powerful Kennett — the Class M champs for the past three years. Our lack of height was the deciding factor and St. John suffered its second loss of the campaign. The remainder of the season proved that the little "Irish" were not to be counted out at tournament time. Besides defeating Kennett in our return match at Concord High in a thriller, the "Fighting Irish" turned the tables on mighty Bishop Bradley to end the season with a respectable 18-2 record.

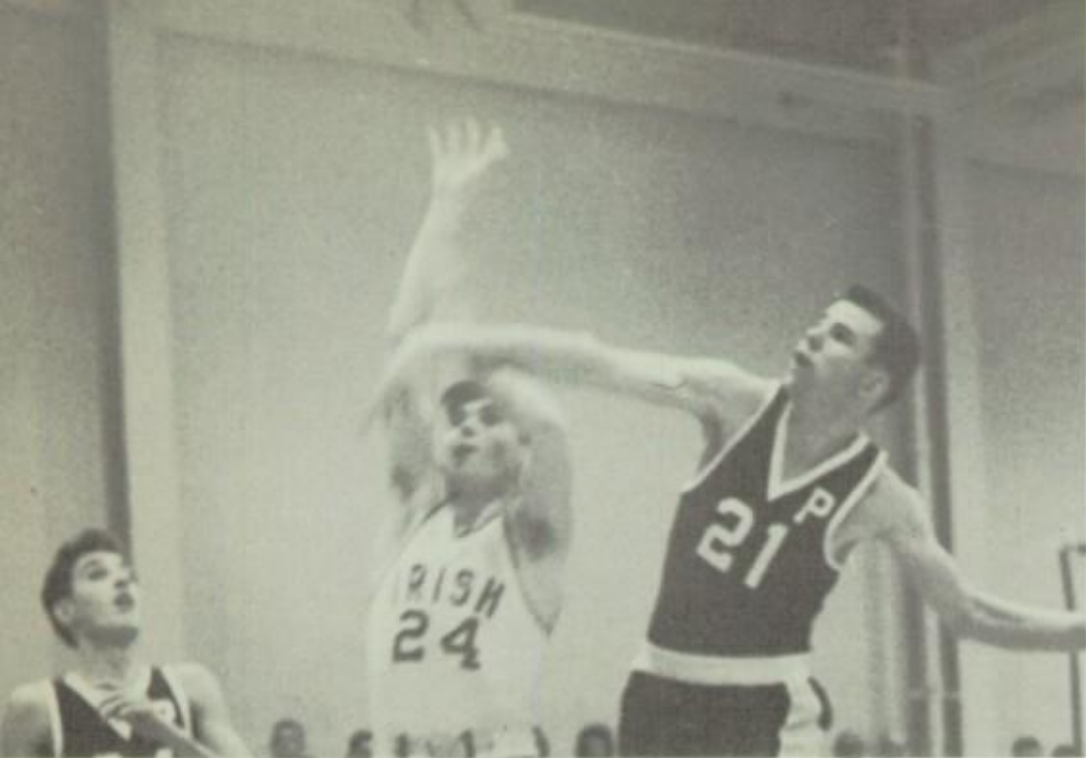

Ranked fourth in the NHIAA standings, St. John was scheduled to meet the Woodsville "Engineers" at Interlakes High School in Meredith in the opening round of the tournament. The result was an impressive 74-45 victory and the right to meet a tough Peterborough five at St. Anselm's spacious gym in the quarter finals. Again the "Fighting Irish" displayed a well-balanced attack and won handily 59-42, earning a spot in the semi-finals with second-ranked Littleton at Lewis Field House in Durham. After a struggling first half St. John roared back to defeat a huge Littleton quintet 56-41. This is what the "Irish" had truly wanted — a rematch with the strong Conway High cagers and a chance to improve on that disappointing defeat suffered in the finals last year. Employing the brilliant strategy of coach Tom Hardiman, a bound and determined St. John's five upset the favored "Eagles" by a 40-27 score. This brought the treasured Class M. championship back to St. John High and the capital city for the third time. It also was the climax for a marvelous coach and his spirited team which will be remembered for a long time to come.

On behalf of the basketball team, I would like to thank all the loyal supporters without whose aid, the team would never have been a success. Our heartiest thanks go to our coach Tommy Hardiman whose fine example and guidance, both on and off the basketball court, will never be forgotten.

Due to the fact that the Yearbook goes to press before the beginning of the baseball season, the best we can do is to write about the team of '61. Here is an account of last year's record:

Last season the team was blessed with veterans. No one could think of St. John's getting beaten. The team kept on rolling and rolling, and made the tournament for the first time in years. They were ranked as the team to beat for the championship. St. John's easily got rid of Hillsboro in the quarter finals, and proceeded to the next game in great confidence. In the semi-finals, however, it was a sad tale indeed, when the "Fighting Irish" were totally upset by the "spirited" Lebanonites.

This season the team is not so fortunate as last year. Only four veterans will return. The team will be rebuilt, however, with many enthusiastic young players, seeking to avenge last year's stunning upset. You, the reader, will know by the time you read this book, just how well they succeeded.

Seniors playing their last year for St. John are as follows: Richard Gagne, Edgar Amrol, Maurice Boucher, Paul Valliere, Robert Sawyer, and Maurice Raymond.

THE SODALITY OF OUR LADY OF VICTORY

The first Sodality of Our Lady was founded by a Jesuit, Father John Leunis, in Rome, Italy, in 1563. He gathered about him boys and men who wished to change their lives to ones of holiness and apostolic zeal. At the end of the first year there were seventy-three Sodalists.

In 1584, Pope Gregory XIII recognized the organization and issued the famous Bull, Omnipotentis Dei, canonically erecting the Sodality in the Roman College. This college was henceforth known as the Prima Primaria or the first Sodality establishment. Moreover, all Sodalists were to look to this Prima Primaria for guidance and recognition.

Meanwhile, women were interested in the work of the Sodalists and they applied for admission. Not until 1751, however, did the Pope accept their application. Here, we think it most worthy to note, that from the ranks of the Sodality have come nineteen Popes and forty canonized saints.

Today there are eight million Sodalists in the world, these come from all walks of life.

In 1948, our late Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, himself a Sodalist, wrote the Apostolic Constitution for all Sodalities affiliated with the Prima Primaria. It was entitled Bio Saeculari.

In this masterly document, Pope Pius XII defined very simply but carefully what the Sodality is. Pius said: "The Sodality is a way of life. It is a particular devotion for generous men and women, boys and girls, who are willing to live their lives in accordance with the spirit of the rules. Therefore, the regulations must be observed perfectly by anyone who wishes to learn to live the full Sodality life, having for its motto, "Ad Jesum per Mariam."

The Sodalists at St. John's are most happy to be a part of this wonderful Marian organization. We are also very proud to say that we are canonically erected, and share in all the privileges and indulgences granted to those Sodalities that are in affiliation with the Prima Primaria in Rome.

Since the erection of the Sodality in St. John High School in 1958, the members, both boys and girls, have made several Days of Recollection and Retreats, also they have attended many important Sodality Union Meetings.

We are most certain that Our Lady's Sodality will continue to grow at St. John's, both in membership and in sanctity with the help of Our Lord and His Blessed Mother.

CAESAR'S BEST WARRIOR

Remember how, two years ago,
We slaved in Latin II?
Well, now they've sent our Master north,
It often makes us blue.
She fought great Caesar's wars each day
From first right to the last,
She helped us with our Gallic Wars
With hope that we would pass.
Recall our Roman Toga Day?
Cornelius came in red.
How shocked we were to see him then,
We'd thought that he was dead!
But now the fun has ended,
Our Teacher? — She has gone
To lead some other Latin Class
And help them carry on.

Patricia Ryan

OUR BEST GIFT

Beneath the stars that shine above at night
There is a light,
Its symbol is the snowy-breasted dove,
Its name is Love.

Paul Valliere

AUTUMN'S END

The crimson leaves were falling from the trees,
They made a carpet for the earth below.
Throughout the night the cold and sharp winds whirled
Among the trees to welcome in the snow.

Theresa Brodeur

PRAYER

Prayer is the simplest form of speech,
What infant lips can try —
Prayers, the richest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.
O Lord, by Whom we go to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
Thy path of prayer Thyself hath trod —
Lord, teach us how to pray.

John E. Healey

ICE FISHING

Oh, I have always loved to fish
Upon the frozen lake.
The beauty and refreshment of
The air new vigor makes.
The bracing breeze that swings along
Brings color to my face,
The flaming fire we build is strong
To make me love this place.

Carol Dandurand

NATURE'S WAY

All the glow of daylight dies
When the sun dies in the west,
Then nature on the quiet earth
Asks God for peace and rest.
When all the glow of day returns
The sun is at his best,
Then nature, singing of its love,
Thanks God for peace and rest.

Roger Laflamme

SO SELDOM!

The bus was silent as a tomb,
There were no jokes or fun,
The team sat there and sadly thought
About the game we almost won!

Madelene Davis

ST. JOHN

Your building may be soiled and worn,
Your walls are very old,
But 'neath your sagging roofs we know
You're worth your weight in gold!

Edgar Amrol

CALL OF THE SEA

The smell of the sea, the salt of the spray,
They haunt the boy until one day
He steals to the shore alone, and he Forevermore a sailor will be.

A PLEA TO GOD

O God, to whom I pray tonight,
Please list'n to what I say.
In June the Class of Sixty-two
Will part — each on his way.
I ask You, dearest Lord above,
Protect them all the way.
Please, may they be the purest ones
On that last Judgment Day.
Louise Dupont

OUT WITH THE OLD, IN WITH THE NEW!

This school for many years has stood,
Its walls were strong and tall.
Its purpose well has been fulfilled,
Its name proclaimed by all.
But as the years of time pass on,
The old no more will do,
A modern school must take its place,
The old gives way to new!
Sandra Jordan

WE'LL FACE THEM!

Too soon we'll find we're being hurled
Into a strong and busy world.
We'll face the problems of our time
With old St. John deep in our mind.
Harry Rogers

IN ALL SINCERITY

This school I know and love so well
Will soon become extinct.
With gratitude I'd like to thank
The ones who made me think.
Thomas Cassidy

Songs

THANK YOU, SAINT JOHN

You've been a loyal faithful friend
Throughout these fleeting years,
And now we have to say goodbye
With hearts brimful of tears.
And so before the new school come
And this old friend is gone
Please let me say just once again,
We love you, dear St. John.
Theresa Brodeur

A PRAYER

How sweet it is to feel, dear Lord,
That Thou wilt surely see
Each work and thought and act of mine
That I may do for Thee!
Teach me, teach me, dearest Lord,
In Thine own loving way
All the lessons of perfection
I should practice day by day.
Eleanor McDonald

FAREWELL

Beloved School, we're going soon,
But though we'll live apart,
We'll never really leave St. John's
We have you in our heart.
Robert Sawyer

BEWARE!

Of old Saint John's
Let no man dare
To speak unkind!
Too much I care!
David Haller

TO ST. JOHN

Protect us now we leave your care,
St. John, we fondly pray.
Your warmth and love we take with us,
Oh, may they ever stay!
